As I Walked out One Midsummer Morning" is the portrait of a young man adrift in a country poised to tear itself apart in civil war. This is the journey of a man from childhood through adolescence and finally to the brink of soldier hood. And yet for that, this book feels a bit like looking at beautiful vacation slides of your buddy who "found himself" backpacking in Europe. Yes, the ...

One morning when the mist came down I woke up early and I looked around
My baby slept, the sky was blue
I started walkin' thinkin' only of you
Up the hill and down the road

The next morning, when I looked out, I saw the hollow-backed bay between the Varnum spruces, and Ethan Frome, throwing back his worn bearskin, made room for me in the sleigh at his side. After that, for a week, he drove me over every morning to Corbury Flats, and on my return in the afternoon met me again and carried me back through the icy night to Starkfield. The distance each way was barely ...

one wonâ€™t work out either.â€• Of course it wonâ€™t, if you go in with this attitude. Of course it wonâ€™t, if you go in with this attitude. Isolating Incidences means that you treat the events in your life as singular.
